Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether India has been cautioned that they should not join USA led force in Iraq;

(b) if so, whether all the opposition parties in India have intimated that any position contrary to the resolution of Parliament would be an "infringement of its privilege";

(d) if so, whether India has accepted this demand; and

(e) whether some 20-29 countries have agreed to send the troops to Iraq for peace keeping including India?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI VINOD KHANNA): (a) to (e) On the question of the possible deployment of Indian troops in Iraq many diverse views have been expressed.The Government has also consulted the U.N., the U.S., Iraq's neighbours and Iraqis. Taking all the relevant factors and views into consideration, Government made a decision on July 14, as follows:

"The Government of India has given careful thought to the question of sending Indian troops to Iraq.

Our longer term national interest, our concern for the people of Iraq, our long-standing ties with the Gulf region as a whole, as well as our growing dialogue and strengthened ties with the U.S. have been key elements in this consideration.

India remains ready to respond to the urgent needs of the Iraqi people for stability, security, political progress and economic reconstruction. Were there be an explicit UN mandate for the purpose, the Government of India could consider the deployment of our troops in Iraq.

In the meanwhile, Government of India is ready to contribute to the restoration of infrastructure, medical, health, educational, communications and other civilian needs of the Iraqi people. As a concrete gesture of our support to the Iraqi people, we are already planning to set up, jointly with Jordan, a hospital in Najaf in Iraq."
